Outreach Plan

Introduction

Winnsboro, in Wood County, is in the Piney Woods of East Texas at the junction of State highways 11 and 37. It is 90 miles east of Dallas and 100 miles northwest of Shreveport, Louisiana.

The town was first settled in the 1850s. It was initially named Wynnsborough for John E. Wynn, an Englishman who settled in the area. The name was changed to Winnsborough in 1855 when the first post office was established. The name was shortened to Winnsboro in 1893. In 1904, the Texas Southern Railroad built through the town and by 1914 the population had grown to 2,300. The population dropped to 1,900 in 1936, due to the Great Depression and a dramatic decrease in cotton prices. After World War II, the town began to grow again, showing steady population growth since the mid-1960s. In the 2010 census, Winnsboro had 3,434 residents.

Historical, Current, and Future Roles of the Library

Historically, the library has been a place for lifelong learning, information literacy, current topics and titles, and a public computer center. In the future, the library would like to be a community meeting place and develop a heritage center.

Existing Programs

The library has a number of existing programs including a regular story time for preschool children, a summer reading program, computer tutoring, preparation for citizenship classes, regular art displays, and an English as a Second Language program.

Identified Needs

The community needs more businesses to provide a bigger tax base; increased tourism, and more volunteer opportunities for teens and young adults. There is a need for walking trails, more historical sites, and a museum.

Identified needs for the library include additional staffing, more volunteers, and additional space.

Identified Assets

Winnsboro's assets include several historic buildings; an active Chamber of Commerce; a successful Main Street project that has revitalized downtown; restaurants with music venues; monthly 3rd Fridays Arts and Crafts events; multiple pharmacies, a hospital, senior assisted living facility, a farmer's market, a city park with swimming pool and rodeo grounds; numerous businesses, and shopping opportunities.

The library's assets include 15 public access computers, free Wi-Fi, a meeting room primarily used for children programs, and a knowledgeable staff.

Thank You Statement

The Gilbreath Memorial Library would like to thank the city council members and the library board for their ongoing support. The library is grateful that the Robert and Ruby Priddy Charitable Trust for funding the University of North Texas (UNT) Promoting and Enhancing the Advancement of Rural Libraries (PEARL) project. We thank the Trust and UNT for choosing our library to participate in the PEARL project. The library thanks the PEARL staff including RoseAleta Laurell, CAS student. Director Vickie Martin would like to thank the library staff for their understanding and support while she worked on developing this outreach program.

Community Profile Narrative

Winnsboro is a Main Street City, Certified Retirement Community, and is the location of a State Certified Arts District. It is the home of popular restaurants for fine dining, as well as antique shops, a coffee shop, two general stores, a day spa, an upscale kitchen store, and a variety of places to visit and enjoy.

A number of artists, musicians, writers, actors and entertainers make their home in Winnsboro. There are a number of venues for live music, theatre, and art exhibits, as well as several artist studios scattered throughout the area.

Annual festivals in Winnsboro include the month-long Autumn Trails Festival in October; Texas Spring Festival in May, and the Classic Car Cruise-In held Labor Day weekend.

Main Geographic Features

Community Features
Assets and Challenges
Winnsboro's geographical assets include hills, farmland, pine forest, parks and rodeo grounds.
Winnsboro has several horse ranches, dairy farms and chicken farms.

A major challenge is the nearly 100 mile distance to the nearest metropolitan area of Dallas.

Library Features

Assets and Challenges

The main geographic asset of the library is its location. It is located north of the downtown area and is within easy walking distance of restaurants, Chamber of Commerce, the newspaper office, downtown shopping the post office, local schools and the Art District where frequent music events, festivals and entertainment are held.

The library does not have geographic challenges

Community Demographics

According to the 2010 Census, the ethnic distribution of residents in Winnsboro was 88.8% White, 5.3% Black, and 8.0% of the population was Hispanic. The age distribution was 6.5% under age 5, 18.4% of residents were age 5-19, 78% over 18, and 20.7% over 65 or over. The educational attainment of the residents was 72.8% having graduated from high school, with 20.9% having a bachelor's degree.

Library Profile Narrative

The formal opening for the Andrew Carnegie Library in Winnsboro was held in 1909 with the library officially opening its doors for service in 1910. For the first eight months, the Standard

Club of Winnsboro operated the library. The City of Winnsboro took over the operation of the library. Ms. T.U. Bozeman was the first librarian and the collection consisted of books that were donated by citizens, clubs, and organizations.

The library moved to a newly constructed building on West Broadway in 1967. The facility was built entirely with city funds without having to hold a bond election.

In 1985, the library received a donation of $60,000 from the estate of Fern Gilbreath. That same year Judge T.C. Chadick, former resident and retired associate judge of the Supreme Court, donated a lot at 916 North Main to be used to build a new library. The City of Winnsboro raised $687,000 through fundraising efforts and in May of 1986, received a $100,000 grant from the LSCA Title II grant program. Construction began begun in September, 1986. The new 6,000 square foot facility was named the Gilbreath Memorial Library in honor of Fern Gilbreath. The library later received a grant from the North East Texas Library System for a new computer system and a photocopy machine was donated by local resident Lee Ray. Buford and Rachel Folmar donated a hand built, three-piece train for the children's section.

Most Important Library Statistics

The library serves the tri-county area of Wood, Hopkins, and Franklin counties. In 2010, the collection had 40,809 items with a total circulation of 66,594. The library had 61,000 visits, did 5,519 reference transactions, and processed 1,037 interlibrary loans. Program attendance was 1,661. The library is open 42 hours per week. It is staffed by two full-time staff and five volunteers. There were 1,040 volunteer hours reported for 2010. The library is a member of TexShare through the Texas State Library which allows qualifying patrons to borrow from other Texas libraries with a Winnsboro based card.

Vision, Mission, Goals and Objectives

Vision Statement

Gilbreath Memorial Library's goal is to serve as an essential part of the community by providing life-long learning opportunities and contributing to the future and quality of life of the individuals and families of our rural community.

Mission Statement

Gilbreath Memorial strives to be a major informational, educational, and recreational resource for not only our community but for each resident in the State of Texas. Our goal is to provide the highest quality of service to patrons of all ages and backgrounds. We will strive to meet the ever changing needs of our patronage by offering a wide array of materials, services, programs and technology advancements.

Goals and Objectives for the Library

Goal 1 Maintain a staff devoted to the betterment of the library and a dedicated Library Advisory Board.

Activites:

1. The staff of Gilbreath Memorial Library is constantly aware of the needs of the patrons and the community at large. We strive to meet the ever changing needs of our patronage.

2. The staff makes every attempt to attend online webinars or attend workshops which will not only meet the present needs of our library but future goals. Our attendance through our State Library System workshops normally exceeds the minimum required continuing education toward county certification.

3. Our Library Advisory Board works hard to maintain a strong community foundation. Their dedication to the library and its staff helps the library to continue to be an intergral part of our community.

Goal 2 To extend our collection to meet the needs of surrounding communities as well as continuing to be a participation of The TexShare Card Program and Amigos TexPress Courier service.

Activities:

 Our community supports the goals of Gilbreath Memorial in Long range Plans providing free service to not only the citizens of Winnsboro but the surrounding communities and all citizens of the State of Texas which meet membership requirements.
 To be able to provide materials that reach the varied interests that extend beyond the boundaries of our community.

Goal 3 To Provide extra services to the community.

Activities:

1. We plan to countinue our outreach programs through the collaberative grant with area libraries in the ESL & Citizenship Classes sponosred by Dollar General Grant and Gateway to Libraries Grant in our community.

2. Provide informational programs in the near future. Programs on health, crafts, and general interests are being considered on an ongoing basis.

3. We plan to work closely with area organizations in scheduling of activities that will bring renewed interest in the Library. Programs involving children and adults of all ages will be considered.

Goal 4 Upgrading technology services.

Activites:

1. To completely automate Gilbreath Memorial Library and to continue to upgrade the services that technology demands.

2. To offer classes on a scheduled basis to meet the requests for patron computer education.

3. To provide our community with web links through our Library Web Site that will connect them to information that will meet their needs.

Goals and Objectives for Outreach Program

Goal: As part of the library's Goal 3 "To Provide extra services to the community", the library will collaborate with the local Boy Scouts to develop a mini-park located adjacent to the library for citizens to use as a place to read, picnic, and relax.

Objectives:

The objectives for the program are:

- 1. To provide a community space where residents can gather.
- 2. To provide an outdoor venue for library and community programs.
- 3. To enhance the property adjacent to the library.

Outreach Program

The library will partner with the local Boy Scouts and Master Gardeners to enhance the area around the library to create a mini-park and memorial garden. The library will use the mini-park to hold outdoor programs. The mini-park will include a landscaped area with benches and picnic tables for residents to use as a place to read, relax, and to gather for family picnics and as a place to eat lunch.

As part of this project, the library will hold an outdoor family movie screening and will sponsor a planting day party. The initial movie night and planting day are intended to be a pilot project. The library anticipates continuing the outdoor movie screenings and to hold an annual planting day party once the mini-park is created. The library intends to develop other programs that can be held in the mini-park such as a brown bag book share program.

The library will have an outdoor movie showing before the planting party. The purpose of the movie event is to raise awareness of the mini-park project and to encourage participants to sign up for the planting day party. Refreshments will be served. Donated water, cookies, and popcorn will be provided. A display of the mini-park plans, sign-up sheets for contributions of plants and money donations, and sign-up sheets for volunteers to help with the planting will be on-hand. Tables and chairs will be set up for people who do not bring their own lawn chairs. The movie to be shown will be Captain America.

The planting day party will be held on a Saturday after the movie screening. Plants and benches donated or purchased with contributions will be installed. The Boy Scouts will provide a variety of tools and will help with the actual work. The Master Gardener will help determine the layout, how to prepare the soil, where to plant, and provide a basic plan for the project. Areas needing clean up will be addressed. Hardy low maintenance plants will be selected. These include trees, shrubs, and flowers. Donated refreshments will be provided (drinks, sandwiches, and cookies).

The library will order a memorial plaque to be installed that will record the names of those in whose memory a donation was made for the mini-park.

Statement of need

The library conducted a survey. It was distributed to people as they visited the library. There were 30 surveys returned. The majority indicated a need for more programs for children and young adults, GED classes, and programs for seniors. Computer classes were also mentioned. The library has a small meeting room inside. On occasions, the library has had to have programs outside due to the size of the existing meeting room. It was determined one way to help meet the need for a larger program space would be to develop an outside area where programs could be held.

Description of the larger audience or target group the library wants to reach The target group is children, adults, and seniors living in Winnsboro.

Description of the specific segment of the target group the proposed program will serve It is anticipated people who live in the immediate area will benefit from the mini-park as will library patrons. While the mini-park will be available for anyone who wants to use it, the library anticipates primary users to be those attending library sponsored programs and people living in the area near the library. There is no public park in the area near the library. The library is in a residential area with a church behind it, convenience store next to it, and it faces a major highway.

Estimated number of potential participants

Based on previous attendance and participation at library sponsored programs, it is anticipated 40-50 people will attend the first movie showing, and 10-20 people will volunteer for the planting party.

Description of the characteristics of the audience (age, gender, interest, where they live, transportation issues if any, best hours for a program, etc.)

The movie screening will be held on a Friday evening in June. Arrival time will be set for 7:30 with the movie starting about 8:30 p.m. The planting day party will be held on the Saturday the day after the movie screening. Arrival time will be set for 8:00 a.m. and will end about 3:00 p.m.

A rain day will be scheduled in advance, in case of inclement weather. The program is planned for adults and children of all ages. Participants will provide their own transportation to the library for the program.

List potential partners based on your assets assessment

The potential partners for the project are the Boys Scouts, Trails Art Center, Jerry Sutphin (Master Gardner), Friends of the Library, the Winnsboro Civic Club, local schools, Historical Preservation Society, Art Espresso Coffee Shop, Chamber of Commerce, Rotary Club, local banks, Winnsboro Standard Club, local radio station KWNS, and the Winnsboro News.

List available library resources that could contribute to the success of the program

The library owns the land to be developed, and the City of Winnsboro provides support for the library for basic yard maintenance. The library has space for meeting and planning. The staff is capable of managing a project successfully.

Detailed Action Plan

Action Plan Goal(s): The goals of the program are:

- 1. Plan the program.
- 2. Promote the program.
- 3. Implement the program.
- 4. Evaluate the program.

Action Plan Objective(s):

1. Partner with Eagle Scout David Bryant, Master Gardener Jerri Sutphin and local organizations to develop plans for the development of a mini-park on the library grounds park.

2. Procure sponsorship and support from local businesses and community organizations by giving presentations and mailing letters publicizing the library's program and collaboration with the Boy Scouts.

3. Promote community support and awareness through public announcements at the local radio station KWNS, Chamber of Commerce electronic sign, local newspaper, library's weekly article, library website, and library blog.

- 4. Develop schedule for planting party and movie screening.
- 5. Compile feedback.

Eagle Scout Service Project Workbook

Eagle Scout Service Project Workbook

REPA

Eagle Scout candidate's name

Message From the Chief Scout Executive

Congratulations on attaining the rank of Life Scout. Each year, approximately 57,000 Scouts just like you reach this milestone. And, since you're reading this, I know you are looking forward to achieving the pinnacle of your Scouting experience: the rank of Eagle Scout.

Think of your Eagle Scout service project as the ultimate "application phase" of what you have learned thus far in Scouting: leadership... responsibility... managing projects... applying your Scout Oath—"to help other people." An Eagle Scout project is a crowning achievement following years of fun, adventure, and advancement. In completing it, you provide an example for others that they can do the same thing.

Some may suggest how big your project should be, or how many hours should be spent on it, but that is entirely up to you. Service, impact, and leadership are the objectives and measurements. Use these as your criteria to consider, select, develop, and evaluate your project. For most, the Eagle Scout service project becomes a truly defining moment in your quest for excellence. Planning and leadership skills utilized and memories of outcomes achieved will last you a lifetime. You will want to share those stories with others, so make it a worthy project!

Legendary hall-of-fame basketball coach John Wooden said, "It's not so important who starts the game but who finishes it." Let me be among the first to encourage you to take Mr. Wooden's remark to heart. You have made it to Life Scout, but Eagle represents the finish line. Keep striving. I know you will cross it, and you will be glad you did!

Scouts and Parents or Guardians

Be sure to read "Message to Scouts and Parents or Guardians" on page 21 and "Excerpts and Summaries From the Guide to Advancement" on page 22. Those pages contain important information that will help you ensure requirements are properly administered according to National Council policies and procedures.

Completing This Workbook

If you are working from a printed copy of the Eagle Scout Service Project Workbook, you may complete it legibly in ink, or with a typewriter. Feel free to add as many pages as you wish. This may be necessary if more space is needed, or as you include photographs, photocopies, maps, or other helpful printed materials.

A fillable version of the new workbook is available at www.scouting.org (click on "Youth," then "Boy Scout," then "Advancement, Awards, Recognition"). If you experience difficulties with the fillable PDF, you may need to download a more recent version of Adobe Acrobat reader (available free online). Or, it might be necessary to use a printed copy.

At the time of this printing, the national Advancement Team was actively coordinating the production of a new electronic version of the workbook. If testing proves successful, we will replace the fillable PDF version with it. Regardless, the workbook will continue to be available for printing a hard copy that can be completed by hand or with a typewriter.

Only the Official Workbook May Be Used

Contents

Eagle Scout candidates must use the official Eagle Scout Service Project Workbook, No. 512-927, as produced by the Boy Scouts of America. The official fillable PDF version can be found at www.scouting.org. Although it is acceptable to copy and distribute the workbook, it must maintain the same appearance with nothing changed, added, or deleted.

No council, district, unit, or individual has the authority to produce or require additional forms, or to add or change requirements, or to make any additions, deletions, or changes in the text, outlines, links, graphics, or other layout or informational elements of the workbook. It is permissible, however, to print, copy, or send individual pages or forms within the workbook as long as they are not changed in the process.

Attention: Unit, District, and Council Reviewers

Eagle Scout projects must be evaluated primarily on impact: the extent of benefit to the religious institution, school, or community, and on the leadership provided by the candidate. There must also be evidence of planning and development. This is not only part of the requirement but relates to practicing the Scout motto, "Be Prepared." However, in determining if a project meets Eagle Scout requirement 5, reviewers must not require more planning and development than necessary to execute the project. These elements must not overshadow the project itself, as long as the effort was well led and resulted in otherwise worthy results acceptable to the beneficiary.

Meeting Eagle Scout Requirement 5

Eagle Scout Requirement 5

While a Life Scout, plan, develop, and give leadership to others in a service project helpful to any religious institution, any school, or your community. (The project must benefit an organization other than Boy Scouting.) A project proposal must be approved by the organization benefiting from the effort, your unit leader and unit committee, and the council or district before you start. You must use the Eagle Scout Service Project Workbook, No. 512-927, in meeting this requirement.

Project Purpose

In addition to providing service and fulfilling the part of the Scout Oath, "to help other people at all times," one of the primary purposes of the Eagle Scout service project is to demonstrate or hone, or to learn and develop, leadership skills. Related to this are important lessons in project management and taking responsibility for a significant accomplishment.

Choosing a Project

Your project must be for any religious institution, any school, or your community. It is important to note, however, that the Boy Scouts of America has recently redefined "your community" to include the "community of the world." Normally, "your community" would not refer to individuals, although a council or district advancement committee may consider scenarios in which an individual in need can affect a community. It is then a matter of identifying a source representing the "community" who will provide approvals. For more information, see the Guide to Advancement, No. 33088, section 9.0.2.5.

Your project must present an opportunity for planning, development, and leadership. For example, if a blood drive is chosen and the blood bank provides a set of "canned" instructions to be implemented with no further planning, the planning effort would not meet the test. You may need to meet with blood bank officials and work out an approach that requires planning, development, and leadership. This might involve developing and carrying out a marketing and logistics plan, or coordinating multiple events.

An Internet search can reveal hundreds of service project ideas. Your project doesn't have to be original, but it could be. It might be a construction, conservation, or remodeling project, or it could be the presentation of an event with a worthwhile purpose. Conversations with your unit leader, teachers, your religious leader, or the leaders of various community organizations can also uncover ideas. In any case, be sure the project presents a challenge that requires leadership, but also something that you can do with unskilled helpers, and within a reasonable period of time.

Restrictions

- There are no required minimum hours for a project. No one may tell you how many hours must be spent on it.
- Routine labor is not normally appropriate for a project. This might be defined as a job or service you may provide as part of your daily life, or a routine maintenance job normally done by the beneficiary (for example, pulling weeds on the football field at your school.)
- While projects may not be of a commercial nature or for a business, this is not meant to disallow work for community institutions, such as museums and service agencies (like homes for the elderly, for example), that would otherwise be acceptable. Some aspect of a business operation provided as a community service may also be considered—for example, a park open to the public that happens to be owned by a business.
- A project may not be a fundraiser. In other words, it may not be an effort that primarily collects money, even for a worthy charity. Fundraising is permitted only for securing materials and facilitating a project, and it may need to be approved by your council. See "Eagle Scout Service Project Fundraising Application" on page 17.
- No more than one Eagle Scout candidate may receive credit for working on the same Eagle Scout service project.
- Projects may not be performed for the Boy Scouts of America, or its councils, districts, units, or properties.

This workbook includes valuable information that can help ensure your success. It also includes four forms: a proposal, a final plan, a fundraising application, and a project report.

Before completing any of the forms, read with your parent or guardian the "Message to Scouts and Parents or Guardians" found on page 21. If your project is worthy and meets Eagle Scout requirement 5 as it is written, the message will help you successfully present your proposal through the approval process.

Preparing the Project Proposal (Pages 7-10)

Your proposal must be completed first. It is an overview, but also the beginnings of planning. It shows your unit leader, unit committee, and council or district that the following tests can be met. For your proposal to be approved, it must show the following:

- 1. It provides sufficient opportunity to meet the Eagle Scout service project requirement. You must show that planning, development, and leadership will take place; and how the three factors will benefit a religious institution, a school, or your community.
- 2. It appears to be feasible. You must show the project is realistic for you to complete.
- 3. Safety issues will be addressed. You must show you have an understanding of what must be done to guard against injury, and what will be done if someone does get hurt.
- 4. Action steps for further detailed planning are included. You must make a list of the key steps you will take to make sure your plan has enough details to be carried out successfully.
- 5. You are on the right track with a reasonable chance for a positive experience.

Your proposal need only be detailed enough to show a reviewer that you can meet the tests above. If you find in order to do that, the proposal must be lengthy and complicated, your project might be more complex than necessary.

If your project does not require materials or supplies, etc., simply mark those spaces "not applicable." Remember, do not begin any work or raise any money or obtain any materials until your project proposal has been approved. If you submit your proposal too close to your 18th birthday, it may not be approved in time to finish planning and executing the project.

The Final Plan (Pages 11–16)

Complete the Eagle Scout Service Project Final Plan after your proposal has been approved. This is a tool for your use—no one approves it—and it can be important in showing your Eagle Scout board of review that you have planned and developed your project as required. For this reason you are strongly encouraged to share the final plan with a project coach. This might be the council or district person who approved your proposal, or perhaps someone who has agreed to work with you. A coach can help you avoid many problems associated with service projects, and thus improve your chance of passing the Eagle board of review. If materials, etc., were not needed, mark those spaces "not applicable."

The Fundraising Application (Pages 17–18)

If your fundraising effort involves contributions only from the beneficiary or you, your parents or relatives, your unit or its chartered organization, or parents or members in your unit, submitting the fundraising application is not necessary. If you will be obtaining money or materials from any other sources, you must submit a completed application to the local council service center. For more information, see "Procedures and Limitations on Eagle Scout Service Project Fundraising" on page 18.

The Project Report (Pages 19-20)

Complete this portion after the project has been finished. Note the space for you to sign (confirming that you led and completed the project), and also the signature lines for the beneficiary and your unit leader's approval that your project met Eagle Scout requirement 5. As with the proposal and final plan, if materials, etc., were not required, mark those spaces "not applicable."

Eagle Scout Service Project Proposal

Eagle Scout candidate's name

Eagle Scout Requirement 5

While a Life Scout, plan, develop, and give leadership to others in a service project helpful to any religious institution, any school, or your community. (The project must benefit an organization other than Boy Scouting.) A project proposal must be approved by the organization benefiting from the effort, your unit leader and unit committee, and the council or district before you start. You must use the Eagle Scout Service Project Workbook, No. 512-927, in meeting this requirement.

Eagle Scout Service Project Proposal

Project Description and Benefit Eagle Scout candidate:

Briefly describe the project. Attach sketches or "before" photographs if these will help others visualize it.

Tell how your project will be helpful to the beneficiary. Why is it needed?

When do you plan to begin work on the project? How long do you think it will take to complete?

Giving Leadership

Approximately how many people will be needed to help on your project? Where will you recruit them (unit members, friends, neighbors, family, others)? Explain:

What do you think will be most difficult about leading them?

Materials

(Materials are things that become part of the finished project, such as lumber, nails, and paint.)

What types of materials, if any, will you need? You do not yet need a detailed list of exact quantities, but you must show you have a reasonable idea of what is required.

Supplies

(Supplies are things you use up, such as masking tape, tarps, and garbage bags.)

What kinds of supplies, if any, will you need? You do not yet need a detailed list or exact quantities, but you must show you have a reasonable idea of what is required.

Eagle Scout Service Project Proposal

Tools

What kinds of tools, if any, will you need?

Permits and Permissions

(Note that property owners normally secure permits.)

Will you need to secure permissions or permits (for example, building permits)? Who will obtain them? How much will they cost? How long will it take to secure them?

Preliminary Cost Estimate

(You do not need exact costs. Reviewers will just want to see if you can reasonably expect to raise enough money to cover an initial estimate of expenses.)

| (Enter your estimated expenses) |      | Fundraising Explain where you will get the money for total costs indicated below, left. |

| Total costs:                    |      |   |

*Such costs as food, water, gasoline, parking, permits, equipment rental, sales tax, etc.

Project Phases

Think of your project in terms of phases and list what they might be. The first might be to complete your final plan. Others might include fundraising, preparation, execution, and reporting. You may have as many phases as you want, but it is not necessary to become overly complicated.

Logistics

(A Tour Plan has also been called a "Tour Permit." Check with your council service center to determine if one is required.)

How will you handle transportation of materials, supplies, tools, and helpers? Will you need a Tour Plan?

Further Planning

(You do not have to list every step, but it must be enough to show you have a reasonable idea of how to complete a final plan.)

List some action steps you will take to complete a final plan. For example, "Complete a more detailed set of drawings."

Candidate's Promise

(Signed before approvals below are granted)

On my honor as a Scout, I have read this entire workbook, including the "Message to Scouts and Parents or Guardians" on page 21. I promise to be the leader of this project, and to do my best to carry it out for the maximum benefit to the religious institution, school, or community I have chosen as beneficiary.

Eagle Scout Service Project Final Plan

Eagle Scout candidate's name: ____

Project start date: ____

Projected completion date: _____

Eagle Scout requirement 5 says you must "plan" and "develop" your service project. Though this final plan is a tool for your use, and is not approved or signed, it is important in helping to show you have done the required planning and development. Note, however, that it is not necessary to provide details that are not necessary to the accomplishment of your project.

A Scout who is prepared will complete the final plan and ask a project coach to review it with him. The council or district representative who approved your proposal may have agreed to serve as your project coach, or someone else may take on this important role. His or her involvement and review of your final plan is optional, but it can help you avoid many problems or mistakes. This can also improve your chances of passing the Eagle Scout board of review.

Comments From Your Proposal Review

What suggestions were offered by the council or district representative who approved your proposal?

Project Description and Benefit-Changes From the Proposal

As projects are planned, changes usually are necessary. If they are major, it is important to confirm they are acceptable to the beneficiary. You should also share major changes with those who approved your proposal, and also with your coach to be sure you still have a chance of passing the board of review. If more space is needed to describe changes, please add an attachment.

How will your project be different from your approved proposal?

Will the changes make the project more or less helpful to the beneficiary? Explain:

Present Condition or Situation

(It is extremely helpful to have "before" photographs to show the board of review.)

Describe the present condition of the worksite (for an event or activity, describe your biggest obstacles).

Project Phases

(You may have more than eight phases, or fewer, as needed; if more, place in an attachment.)

| Look at the phases from your proposal. Make any changes, then provide a little more detail, including timing. |
| Phase 1:  |
| Phase 2:  |
| Phase 3:  |
| Phase 4:  |
| Phase 5:  |
| Phase 6:  |
| Phase 7:  |
| Phase 8:  |

Work Processes

Prepare a step-by-step list of what must be done and how everything will come together: site preparations, sizing, assembly, and fastening of materials; uses of supplies and tools; finishes to be used (paint, varnish, etc.); and so forth. Consider asking your project coach for assistance with this.

Attach further plans as necessary, with drawings, diagrams, maps, or pictures that will help you succeed and that might be helpful to your workers, your coach, the project beneficiary, and your board of review. Drawings should be to scale. If you are planning an event or activity, a program outline or script might be appropriate.

Permits and Permissions

(The Tour Plan has also been called the "Tour Permit.")

Will a Tour Plan be needed (this must be confirmed with local council policies)? If you will need permissions or permits*, what is being done to obtain them, and when will they be issued?

*Permissions and permits could include building or electrical permits, dig permits, event permits, permission to access property, etc.

Materials

List each item, and its description, quantity, unit cost, total cost, and source. For example:

| Plywood | 3/4", 4' X 8', B-C interior grade | 3 sheets   | $20.00        | $60.00    | ABC Hardware donation* |
|---------|-----------------------------------|------------|----------------|------------|------------------------|
| Item    | Description                       | Quantity   | Unit Cost      | Total Cost | Source                 |
|         |                                   |            |                |            |                        |
|         |                                   |            |                |            |                        |
|         |                                   |            |                |            |                        |
|         |                                   |            |                |            |                        |
|         |                                   |            |                |            |                        |
|         |                                   |            |                |            |                        |
|         |                                   |            |                |            |                        |
|         |                                   | Total cost | t of materials |            |                        |

*If you plan for donations such as the one shown in the sample, you will most likely need to complete the Eagle Scout Service Project Fundraising Application on page 17.

Supplies

List each item and its description, quantity, unit cost, total cost, and source. For example:

| Plastic tarp | 9' X 12', 2ml thick | 2 tarps         | $4.00    | $8.00     | ABC Hardware purchase |

Logistics

How will the workers get to and from the place where the work will be done?

How will you transport materials, supplies, and tools to and from the site?

How will the workers be fed?

Will restrooms be conveniently located?

Logistics, continued

What will be done with leftover materials and supplies?

What will be done with the tools?

Safety

Will a first-aid kit be needed for this project? If so, where will it be kept?

Will any hazardous materials or chemicals be used? If so, how will you see that they are properly handled?

List hazards you might face. (These could include severe weather, wildlife, hazardous tools or equipment, sunburn, etc.) What will you do to prevent problems (for example, hazardous tools operated only by qualified adults)?

Contingency Plans

Who will be your first-aid specialist?

What could cause postponement or cancellation of the project? What will you do should this happen?

Comments From Your Project Coach About Your Final Plan

(A project coach is not required but can be extremely helpful.)

Eagle Scout Service Project Fundraising Application

Before completing this application, it is important to read the "Procedures and Limitations on Eagle Scout Service Project Fundraising." It can be found at the back of this application. Once completed, you must obtain approval from the project beneficiary and your unit leader, and then submit the fundraising application to your council service center at least two weeks in advance of your fundraising efforts. You will be contacted if it cannot be approved or if adjustments must be made. Use this form, not the Unit Money Earning Application.

*Councils may delegate approval to districts or other committees according to local practices.

Procedures and Limitations on Eagle Scout Service Project Fundraising

The Eagle Scout Service Project Fundraising Application must be used in obtaining approval for service project fundraising or securing donations of materials*. Send the completed form to your local council service center, where it will be routed to those responsible for approval. This may be a district executive or another staff member, the council or district advancement committee, a finance committee, etc., as determined appropriate.

*This application is not necessary for contributions from the candidate, his parents or relatives, his unit or its chartered organization, parents or members of his unit, or the beneficiary. All money left over, regardless of the source, goes to the beneficiary.

If the standards below are met, your fundraising effort likely will be approved.

- Eagle Scout service projects may not be fundraisers. In other words, the candidate may not stage an effort that primarily collects money, even if it is for a worthy charity. Fundraising is permitted only for securing materials, and otherwise facilitating a project. Unless the effort involves contributions only from the beneficiary, the candidate, his parents or relatives, his unit or its chartered organization, or from parents or members in his unit, it must be approved by the local council. This is achieved by submitting the Eagle Scout Service Project Fundraising Application.
- 2. It must be clear to all donors or event participants that the money is being raised on behalf of the project beneficiary. Once collected, money raised must be turned over for deposit to an account of the beneficiary or the candidate's unit, until needed for the project. If the unit receives the funds, it must release them to the beneficiary once expenses have been paid.
- 3. Any contracts must be signed by a responsible adult, acting as an individual, without reference to the Boy Scouts of America. The person who signs the contract is personally liable. Contracts must not and cannot bind the local council, Boy Scouts of America, or the unit's chartered organization.
- 4. If something is to be sold, we want people to buy it because it is a quality product, not just because of an association with Scouting. Buyers or donors must be informed that the money will be used for an Eagle Scout service project to benefit the school, religious institution, or community chosen, and any funds left over will go to that beneficiary.
- 5. Any products sold or fundraising activities conducted must be in keeping with the ideals and principles of the BSA. For example, they must not include raffles or other games of chance.
- 6. Should any donors want documentation of a gift, this must be provided through the project beneficiary, not the Boy Scouts of America. If a donor or fundraising participant wants a receipt, this, too, must be provided in the name of the beneficiary.
- 7. Youth are not normally permitted to solicit funds on behalf of other organizations. However, a local council may allow an exception for Eagle Scout service projects.

Eagle Scout Service Project Report

To be completed after the service project has been concluded. It is not necessary to provide lengthy answers. Please be prepared to discuss your responses at your board of review.

Eagle Scout candidate: _

Once planning was completed, when did the work begin? _____ When was it finished? _____

Summary

What went well?

What was challenging?

Changes

What changes were made as the project was conducted?

Leadership

In what ways did you demonstrate leadership?

What was most difficult about being the leader?

What was most rewarding about being the leader?

What did you learn about leadership, or how were your leadership skills further developed?

Materials, Supplies, Tools

Were there significant shortages or overages of materials, supplies, and tools? If so, what effect did this have?

Entering Service Project Data

The Boy Scouts of America collects information on the hours worked* on Eagle Scout service projects because it points to achievement on our citizenship aim. So that you can assist with the data collection, please keep a list of the people who help on your project, and a log of the number of hours they work. Then, please provide the information requested below. Be sure to include yourself, and the time spent on planning.

|   | No. | Hours |
|---|-----|-------|
| The Eagle Scout candidate   | 1   |       |
| Registered BSA youth members  |     |       |
| Other youth (brothers, sisters, friends, etc., who are not BSA members) |     |       |
| Registered BSA adult Scout leaders                                      |     |       |
| Other adults (parents, grandparents, etc., who are not BSA members)     |     |       |
| Totals  |     |       |

*There is no requirement for a minimum number of hours that must be worked on an Eagle Scout service project.

If you have been told you must meet a minimum number of hours then you may lodge a complaint with your district or council. If you have given leadership to an otherwise worthy project and are turned down by your board of review solely because of a lack of hours, you should appeal the decision.

Funding

Describe your fundraising efforts:

How much was collected?

How much was spent?

If your expenses exceeded funds available, explain why this happened, and how excess expenses were paid.

If you had money left over after the project completion, did you turn it over to the project beneficiary? If "No," when and how long will that take place?

How were the donors thanked?

Photos and Other Documentation

If you have them, attach any "before," "during," and "after" photographs. Attach letters, maps, handouts, printed materials, or similar items that might be helpful to your board of review.

Candidate's Promise

On my honor as a Scout, I was the leader of my Eagle Scout service project and completed it as reported here.

Message to Scouts and Parents or Guardians

The Eagle Scout service project requirement has been widely interpreted—both properly and improperly. This message is designed to share with the Eagle Scout candidate and his parents or guardians the same information we provide to council and district volunteers responsible for project approvals throughout the Boy Scouts of America. You will learn what they can and cannot require.

In addition to reading this entire workbook, the candidate and his parent or guardian should consult the Guide to Advancement, No. 33088, beginning with section 9.0.2.0, "The Eagle Scout Service Project."

The Guide to Advancement, along with the Boy Scout Requirements book, No. 34765, and this workbook, are the only official sources on policies and procedures for Eagle Scout service projects. The Guide to Advancement and Boy Scout Requirements book are available in Scout shops or on www.scoutstuff.org. Your local council and district are important resources for information and guidance and can tell you where to submit service project proposals.

The council and district may also establish limited local procedures as necessary. However, all of this must be done in harmony with the official sources mentioned above. Councils, districts, units, and individuals may not add requirements or ask you to do anything that runs contrary to or exceeds the policies, procedures, or requirements of the Boy Scouts of America.

What an Eagle Scout Candidate Should Expect

First, the Eagle Scout service project belongs to the Eagle Scout candidate. His parents and others may help, but the Scout must be the leader. Nonetheless, while working toward completion of the project, especially during the proposal approval process, a candidate has the right to expect the following, as reprinted from the Guide to Advancement, section 9.0.2.1.

- 1. Questioning and probing for his understanding of the project, the proposal, and what must be done, shall be conducted in a helpful, friendly, courteous, and kindhearted manner. We will respect the Scout's dignity. He will be allowed, if he chooses, to have a parent, unit leader, or other adult present as an observer at any time he is discussing his proposal or project with someone who is reviewing it.
- 2. Project expectations will match Eagle Scout requirement 5, and we will not require proposals to include more than described in the Eagle Scout Service Project Workbook.
- 3. If requested by the Scout or his parent or guardian, an explanation of a proposal rejection will be provided in writing, with a copy sent to the council advancement chair and staff advisor. It will indicate reasons for rejection and suggestions concerning what can be done to achieve approval.
- 4. Guidance that maximizes the opportunity for completion of a worthwhile project will be readily available and strongly recommended. Ultimately, however, the responsibility for success belongs to the Scout, and final evaluation is left to the board of review.
- 5. If the candidate believes he has been mistreated or his proposal wrongfully rejected, he will be provided a method of redress. This will include the opportunity for a second opinion and approval, either through another volunteer or professional advancement administrator*, or the Scout executive, as determined by the council advancement committee or executive board.

*An "advancement administrator" is a member or chair of a council or district advancement committee, or a volunteer or professional designated according to local practices, to assist in advancement administration.

Eagle Scout Service Project Coaches

Many units, districts, and councils use Eagle Scout service project "coaches." They may or may not be part of the proposal approval. Though it is a Scout's option, coaches are highly recommended—especially those from the council or district level who are knowledgeable and experienced with project approvals. Their greatest value comes in the advice they provide after approval of a proposal as a candidate completes his planning. A coach can help him see that, if a plan is not sufficiently developed, then projects can fail. Assistance can come through evaluating a plan and discussing its strengths, weaknesses, and risks, but coaches shall not have the authority to dictate changes, withdraw approval, or take any other such directive action. Instead, coaches must use the BSA method of positive adult association, logic, and common sense to help the candidate make the right decisions.

It is up to the council to determine who may serve as project coaches and how they might be assigned or otherwise provided to candidates. Coaches must be registered with the BSA (in any position) and have taken BSA Youth Protection training, and may come from the unit, district, or council level.

What Is Meant by "Give Leadership to Others ... "?

"Others" means at least two people in addition to the Scout. Helpers may be involved in Scouting or not, and of any age appropriate for the work. Councils, districts, and units shall not establish requirements for the number of people led, or their make-up, or for the time worked on a project. The most important thing here is that the Eagle Scout candidate exhibits leadership.

Evaluating the Project After Completion

Eagle Scout projects must be evaluated primarily on impact—the extent of benefit to the religious institution, school, or community, and on the leadership provided by the candidate. There must also be evidence of planning and development. This is not only part of the requirement, but relates to practicing our motto to, "Be Prepared." However, in determining if a project meets Eagle Scout requirement 5, reviewers must not require more planning and development than necessary to execute the project. These elements must not overshadow the project itself, as long as the effort was well led, and resulted in otherwise worthy results acceptable to the beneficiary.

There may be instances where upon its completion, the unit leader or project beneficiary chooses not to approve a project. One or the other may determine modifications were so material that the extent of service or the impact of the project was insufficient to warrant approval. The candidate may be requested to do more work or even start over with another project. He may choose to meet these requests, or he may decide—if he believes his completed project worthy and in compliance—to complete his Eagle Scout Rank application and submit his project workbook without final approval. He must be granted a board of review should he request it. If it is thought a unit board may not provide a fair hearing, a "board of review under disputed circumstances" may be initiated. See the Guide to Advancement for more information.

Risk Management and Eagle Scout Service Projects

All Eagle Scout service projects constitute official Scouting activity and thus are subject to Boy Scouts of America policies and procedures. Projects are considered part of a unit's program and are treated as such with regard to policies, procedures, and requirements regarding Youth Protection, two-deep leadership, etc. The health and safety of those working on Eagle projects must be integrated with project execution. As with any Scouting activity, the Guide to Safe Scouting applies. The "Sweet 16 of BSA Safety" must also be consulted as an appropriate planning tool. It can be found online at "Scouting Safely," www.scouting. org/scoutsource/healthandsafety/sweet16.aspx.

At the time of publication of this workbook, changes were being made to the Guide to Safe Scouting that will affect how service projects are conducted. The changes limit the use of hazardous power tools, machinery, and equipment, and also such activities as working at heights or on ladders, and driving motor vehicles.

Insurance and Eagle Scout Projects

The Boy Scouts of America General Liability Policy provides general liability insurance coverage for official Scouting activities. Registered adult leaders are provided primary coverage. Unregistered adults participating in a Scouting activity are provided coverage in excess of their personal insurance. Every council has the opportunity to participate in the BSA accident and sickness insurance program. It provides insurance for medical and dental bills arising from Scouting activities. If councils do not purchase this, then units may contract for it. In some cases, chartered organizations might provide insurance, but this must not be assumed. Most of these programs provide insurance, but this must not be assumed. Most of these programs provide only secondary coverage and are limited to registered youth and adults and those interested in becoming members.
